PASTOR'S MESSAGE

“To Pray is to Laugh, Whistle – DANCE on happy feet
Sing! SHOUT and jump! higher than ever before.

But it is also to whisper – Wonder...

Stumble in dark places. Cry... SCREAM or just hold a tired head in tired hands and wait...

PRAYER is our tired reaching out to the ONE who holds us closer and loves us more than we would dare imagine.” – Greta Schrumm

Christ is Risen! He is risen indeed!

Note: we looked at Greta Schrum's description of prayer last month, but it is a perfect image to see again in light of the Risen Christ's presence drawing us to connect in prayer with God.

In the season of Easter, this resurrection good news is our good news and hope. As the earth around us slowly springs to life, so too, does our spirit.

Throughout Lent, we focused on Psalm 23, the Psalm of the Good Shepherd. Together, with our brothers and sisters in Christ from Bethlehem Lutheran --- we journeyed to the cross and empty tomb together. Each week, we set down another piece of baggage or burden as we lightened our load, just as author Max Lucado urged us to do in our reflection book, Traveling Light. Each week the pile of burdens and baggage grew --- and by Good Friday, the burdens were gone, nailed to the cross and gone for good.

Max Lucado wrote about the gifts of Psalm 23 -- especially when it inspired us to turn to the Good Shepherd and pray. Prayer is one of the key ways we continue to lay our baggage and burdens at Jesus' feet and experience God's peace and comfort as He takes the burdens from us. In much the same way – we are now in the season of Easter. Easter is not just one Sunday --- it lasts for 7 weeks! Why? Because we need Resurrection Good News each and every day --- and we need that good news to truly take hold of our lives.

We need the good news of the cross and empty tomb as it meets us exactly where we are and brings the crucified and risen One to you and me. The reality is – Lenten theme or not --- we need our burdens lifted each and every day, not just as a special focus six weeks out of the year.

Isn't part of our spiritual journey... even our life journey, the reality that God is continually at work in our lives --- molding us, shaping us, transforming us, and reforming us – again and again? Isn't that what happens in prayer? Isn't that what life is all about --- God rushing into our brokenness and bringing healing? God brings light into darkness and life out of death. If that is our story --- and it is!

Then, let's shout it from the rooftops --- “Come to Immanuel Lutheran Church in Atwater, where we're not perfect and we're proud of it!” Because we may not be perfectly put together or stronger than anything --- but God in Christ Jesus is. God in Christ Jesus enters into our beautiful, sinful, joy-filled, broken and put back together community and breathes His life into us again and again. The One who holds us closer than we would dare imagine, breathes the understanding and comfort of the crucified Lord into our struggles,

JUNE OUTREACH DEADLINE

June Outreach articles are due in the church office on Sunday, May 18.

We will be folding the June Outreach Wednesday, May 28, at 9:00 a.m.
Helping hands are needed.

WELCA NEWS

We begin May with thoughts of celebrations! Mothers Day, Graduations...and I'm sure there are more things. The list could go on!

Thank you to those that are still sending in Love Offering money. We have a poster in the basement at church to let you know the places we have sent money to.

Our Quilt Auction will be set up very soon, so make a list of people you would like to give a quilt to and hopefully you will find the right one for your gift. They make great gifts for weddings, graduations and birthday, or if you just would like to keep one for yourself.

Check out the bulletin board occasionally to see if there is an event going on you would like to attend.

Serving Group 3 gets its turn at letting our kitchen shine for the months of May and June. I have noticed a few dust bunnies hiding out, so see if they can be captured in a broom or dust mop.

WELCA will have a short business meeting May 18 in the library, unless someone gets to it before us. So drink your coffee a bit more swiftly so we can get our business done and enjoy the rest of our Sunday. Bring ideas of what we may do for the summer.

*Sisters in Christ, Linda Burns
WELCA President*

FESTIVAL DAYS

Immanuel is planning to participate in several Festival Days activities in June. We are looking for volunteers to help with:

- 7th-12th graders serving Taco-in-a-Bag Friday evening, 6/21: fundraiser for Mission Trip
- Decorating a Parade Float
- Walking in the Parade June 21, handing out candy, flyers, other small giveaways, etc.
- Driving the Float in the parade
- Helping to serve coffee and doughnuts before the community worship June 22.

If you would be willing to help with any of these events, please contact the church office so that we can work on coordinating all our volunteers.

Last year, we had two adults and six kids that participated. We would like to see several more adults and kids be a part of this activity this summer. This is a great way for Immanuel to participate in the life of our community!

heartaches, and challenges. The One who loves us more than we would dare imagine, breathes the hope, new life, and victory of the Risen Lord into our everyday circumstances, our joys and dreams, our day to day, regular, ordinary lives and circumstances.

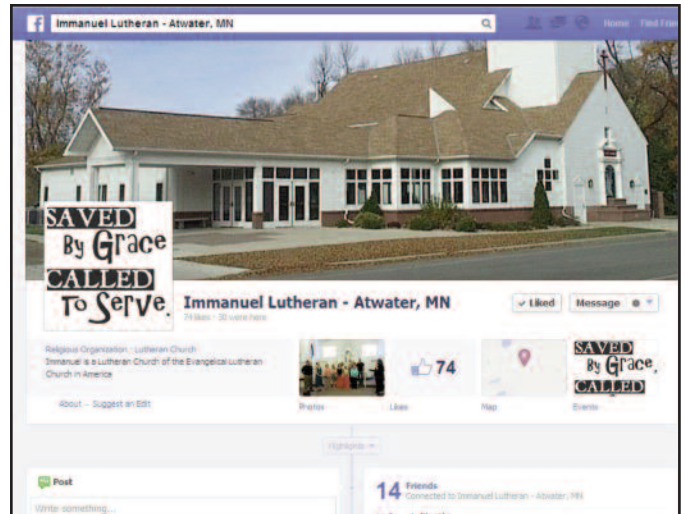

Even better, this One, is the lover and leader of our congregation, our family of God, our body of Christ that is Immanuel Lutheran Church. This One is the lover and leader of our very lives. Better still... this One calls to us, each and every one of us and beckons us to draw near, to open up and pour out all the joys, challenges and struggles of this life. This One invites us to be still, to quiet the busy, racing pace of our lives and listen... listen to the love, mercy, grace, forgiveness, hope and new life of God in Christ Jesus. As our hearts turn and speak with our Creator, as our ears turn and listen to the Living God --- we are renewed... filled... reformed... made new.

Prayer is God's invitation to us to crawl into the lap of God, raise our arms like a child – and be lifted up. In Luke 13, Jesus says, "How often have I desired to gather you children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!" Let's stop putting all the barriers of busyness or unworthiness before us and God. May our prayer be, "God, make me willing... give me the will to draw near to you, as you gather me into your arms and under your wings..."

In 2nd Corinthians 12:9, Paul writes, 'but God said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.' First Lutheran brothers and sisters in Christ --- let's boast – not in ourselves but in the God of Jesus Christ. May we boast in the crucified and risen One who calls us to run into his arms. Even if we're too busy to run to him or kneel at his feet, thanks be to God - he runs to us!

Grace & Peace, Pastor Christa

Please note: I will be on a continuing education week May 19-23 in Minneapolis @ The Festival of Homyletics.
