

Books by John Schreiber

Hillcrest Journal: the poignant, suspenseful, and bittersweet account of a student's senior year in a small town. Highly recommended for high school students & parents.

Passing Through Paradise: an alternately humorous, sentimental, and chilling account of a young girl, her still-grieving father, and a town that refuses to recognize the future. Not only is the town dying – so are its students.

Life on the Fly: a story of friendship, football, fly-fishing and redemption as a middle-aged failure returns to his hometown with only one purpose . . . to find who murdered his best friend. Suspenseful thriller set in small-town America.

Tales from 2 A.M.: a stylistic collection of short stories—some horror, some realistic, some fantastic—all focusing on the dark needs in the human heart for the light. The play at the end has been performed in churches around the world.

Heartstone: an epic fantasy told in a fast-paced, cinematic style centering around a young man who seeks to unlock the mysteries around a burned city, a power-mad king, and a healing gem that contains the power to break the limitations of time and shatter the boundaries between worlds.
