ST. NICHOLAS CATHOLIC CEMETERY

AN EARLY HISTORY

The St. Nicholas cemetery has had approximately 930 burials during its 144-year history (1861-2005). From April 1858, when the first mass was said in New Market Township at the home of Martin Eischen, until the completion of the first church, traveling priests ministered to the Catholics of New Market.

The earliest records (1858 through 1862) for the Catholic families living in New Market Township are commingled in the records of Assumption Church, St. Paul; Immaculate Conception Church, Faribault; St. Mary's, New Trier and possibly elsewhere. The traveling priest generally resided at these parishes.

The church property was "purchased" by Bishop Grace from Peter J. Baltes in 1861. This purchase created a site for the first church, built in 1861, as well as the site for a church cemetery. The first church was a log building built on the site of the present "Old Cemetery". This church remained until a frame church was built in 1871.

Burials Prior to the Church Records

Prior to January 1863, we do not have burial records for the newly established church. However, we have several gravestones that have survived, as well as other written records:

- 1) The History of the Minnesota Valley, by Rev. Edward D. Neill (1882), states in the New Market chapter, "The first person who died in the town was Mary Hoffelt, May 24, 1858. She was buried in St. Paul." Mary was probably related to Peter Hoffelt and his wife Mary Offermann, who are buried at St. Nicholas, but the exact relationship is unknown.
- 2) Gravestone: Marie A. Ring, 1802-1861; Marie was the wife of Anton Ring and mother of four children, all sons, John Joseph, Peter, John Peter and Joseph. Marie's maiden name was Ficker and the family emigrated from Germany in July 1846. They lived in Kenosha County, Wisconsin until immigrating to New Market in either 1860 or early 1861.
- 3) Gravestone: Michael Moes, born 23 Dec 1859; died 28 Jan 1861; Michael was the son of Peter Moes and Mary Ann Timmisch. Peter Moes also was an early burial at St. Nicholas having died 1 Dec 1863, at the age of 34.
- 4) Gravestone: Michael King, born 1830 in Ireland; died 26 March 1862. Michael and his family were settlers in Webster Township, Rice Co., MN. When he died he was buried at St. Nicholas, as that was the closest cemetery. When Annunciation Church in Hazelwood was established, his family joined that parish and other family members are buried there. (Information provided by Peggy King, a great-granddaughter).
- 5) Notation in Parish Records: An undated notation states, "Mrs. Joseph A. Wagner says her bro (sic), Andrew Mahowald, son of Frank and Susan Mahowald, died when 1 & ½ years old and was the first person buried in St. Nicholas cemetery." Other evidence suggests that Andrew was born in 1861 and died in 1862. If the gravestones noted above are correct, Andrew may not have been the first burial, but certainly one of the earlier ones.

Early Church Burials that were recorded

Beginning in 1863, Father Pius Beyer, was assigned to St. Nicholas. He resided in New Trier and handled a number of parishes. Father Beyer started keeping the records for St. Nicholas separate from the other parishes.

- 1) The first entry in the parish death registry is for a Catherine Plaesner, who was born 12 January 1858, died 27 January 1863 and was buried 29 January 1863. She was possibly the daughter of Damien Plaesner and Anna Klein, who are listed as parents in the first baptismal record after Father Beyer started keeping St. Nicholas records separate. The date of the baptismal entry is 21 February 1863.

- 2) The second entry is for Christopher Baltes. Christopher was born 18 March 1837 and died 26 March 1863 in Mankato and was buried 30 March 1863. The records state that he was buried without a priest blessing, but Father Beyer did bless the grave on April 16, 1863, presumably the next time he was in New Market.

Christopher was a Civil War veteran in Company F 7th Regiment. He was a private in the Army, stationed at Mankato, when he died at a "post hospital of congestion of the lungs." He was 26 years old and the son of Hubert Baltes and Anna M. Frings and a brother to Peter J. Baltes. Peter J. had donated the land for the church and cemetery and both Hubert and Peter J., were instrumental in the first church's construction.

Oldest Pioneers Buried at St. Nicholas

Nicholas Backes is believed to be the only person buried at St. Nicholas who was born prior to 1800. He was born 5 Jan 1795 and died on 4 Jan 1879. Nicholas and his wife M. Josephine Dupre may have been from Luxembourg or the Alsace-Lorraine region. Other early pioneers born prior to 1810 include Susanna Hoeltgen Mahowald (her husband died in Lux.), Hubert Baltes (his wife died in Germany), Anton Ring & Marie A. Ficker, Anton Misslin & Maria Ortscheid, Theodore Rosen & Katharina Zimmer, Mathias Sauber & Elizabeth Sauser, Katharina Sauser Schneider (her husband died prior to their arrival in New Market), Susanna Seurer (maiden name not known), Peter Sprank & Margaret Hoffman, John von Kaufenberg & Margaret Herber, Martin Eischens & Elizabeth Donndelinger and John P. Holzem & his wife Margaret.

Immigrant Burials

There are approximately 130 burials of people who were born in a European country and buried at St. Nicholas. The majority of these people were born in Luxembourg or Germany (Prussia), but also included are immigrants from Holland, France, Austria, Czechoslovakia and one from Ireland.

Civil War Veterans

There are nine Civil War veterans buried at St. Nicholas. They are Christopher Baltes, Joseph Baltes, Anton DeGross, George Herber, Frank Mahowald, Joseph Pisbach, Joseph Ring, Michael Schneider and Jacob Steinmetz.

Small Pox Epidemic of 1882

In July 1882 there was small pox epidemic that was centered in Credit River Twp., Scott Co., MN. This epidemic caused the death of three sons of Peter Sauser and Susanna Kirsch and the daughter and granddaughter of Mathias Sauser and Anna Katharina Reuchlin. These five burials at St. Nicholas occurred within several weeks.

Diphtheria Epidemic of 1895

From the cemetery's beginning in 1861 until 1894, the most burials in any one-year was nine, with most years having three or four. In 1895 the community was confronted with a diphtheria epidemic that substantially increased the burials to 36. The epidemic caused multiple deaths in several families, most notably, the Joseph Pisbach and Gertrude Bruck family, losing four children in 5 weeks; the Henry Stork and Mary Lenertz family, losing three daughters in less than a month; and the Henry Dircks and Anna M. Herber family losing Mr. Dircks and two children in one month. There were also several families that lost two families members that year, including the Adam Eischens/Catherine Friedges, Anton Ries/Katherine Schmidt, Bernard Ries/Theresa Seibert & Joseph Kremer/Mary Schuller families.

Graves Moved

When the current church was built, in 1910-1911 there was a need to move several graves so the hillside between the new church and cemetery could be properly landscaped. It is uncertain the number or which burials were moved to other sections of the cemetery.

First Burial in New Cemetery

The "New Cemetery" was blessed on May 22, 1927 and two days later the first person was buried there. She was Magdalena (Lena) Karp, age 39, a daughter of Peter Karp and Anna Thom.

Most Recent Burials

The five most recent burials are that of: Elizabeth Friedges, Laura Thomas Seurer, Floyd Hartmann, Wilfred (Bud) Thomas and Merle Sullivan Mahowald. Laura and Wilfred were siblings.

Elizabeth Friedges was the daughter of John P. Friedges and Mary A. Tholen. She was born 9 Oct 1911 in New Market and died 17 Mar 2005 in Shakopee, MN. She lived in New Market for most of her life, residing for many years with her sister Catherine and later with her brother Michael's family. Elizabeth (Lizzie) was the first child baptized in the current St. Nicholas Church. Her baptism took place on 11 Oct 1911, several weeks before the church's dedication.

Laura Thomas Seurer was the daughter of Nicholas J. Thomas and Margaret Radermacher. She was born 4 May 1918 in New Market and died 2 Nov 2004 in New Prague, MN. She was married to Arthur Seurer, who died 9 Sep 1988.

Floyd Hartmann was the son of Linus A. Hartmann and Aurelia M. Hergott. He was born 20 March 1930 in New Market and died 12 September 2004 in Edina, MN. He was married to Clara M. Gregory. Clara lives in rural New Market (Lakeville address). Floyd served on the St. Nicholas Cemetery Board for a number of years.

Wilfred Thomas was the son of Nicholas J. Thomas and Margaret Radermacher. He was born 16 Mar 1923 in New Market and died 27 Apr 2004 in Belle Plaine, MN. His wife, Lillian Chlan lives at New Market (Lakeville address).

Merle Sullivan Mahowald was the daughter of Parnell M. Sullivan and Loretta M. Halloran. She was born 24 Jan 1925 in Duluth and grew up in St. Paul. She died 19 Apr 2004 in Burnsville, MN. Merle was married to George A. Mahowald. George lives at New Market (Lakeville address).

How This Publication is organized

Old and New Sections: The St. Nicholas Cemetery is divided into the "Old Cemetery" and "New Cemetery." A road separates the two. The Old Cemetery is organized into rows, but the original plat map of all the burials has been missing for a couple decades. The New Cemetery was platted prior to any burials and is very well organized.

Burials without Markers: Many of the early burials had wooden crosses as grave markers and few wood crosses remain today. Based on Church records and obituary information, there are more burials in the cemetery than there are gravestones. If we were aware of the burial we have listed these persons either with family members in the main section of the publication or in a table at the end of this publication.

Indexing: All names mentioned in this book are included in two indexes in the last 2 sections of this book. The "Gravestone Names Index" only lists individuals who would be buried at the St. Nicholas Cemetery.

Use of Women's Maiden Name: Throughout this publication we have identified women by their maiden names, if the compilers know them.

Relationships: Two people buried together should be assumed to be married. If they aren't married, the relationship (e.g. siblings, grandchild, etc.) is identified.

How Burial Entries are organized: The information found on the gravestone is listed first exactly as it appears on the gravestone. Following that entry is information contained within brackets. This supplemental information has been added by Ron Zweber with the assistance of numerous individuals. Ron researched the St. Nicholas Church records, county records, obituary and newspaper articles, immigration records, and individual family genealogy sources. Any speculative comments (i.e. "it is believed") are Ron's comments.

Village/Township: The term "New Market" is used to describe both the Village/Town of New Market as well as the Township. Too many of the record sources used New Market interchangeably to describe events occurring in either the village or township that we are forced to do so as well.

WOOD CROSS

[When the cemetery inscriptions were originally transcribed in 1990, the transcriber made the notation that it was a wood cross but they were uncertain as to the name but "guessed" that it may say DeGross. It also said "Geb. 1872". The cross deteriorated and was removed by 1995.

It is uncertain who is buried here. With a birth year of 1872 this person would probably be in the Anton DeGross and Anna K. Mahowald family. But that family does not appear to have any children whose burials are in question. If the "guess" of DeGross was incorrect there is a possibility that this marker could have been the original marker for Mathias Seurer (the previous entry) as he was born in 1872. But this theory seems unlikely as if Mathias originally had a wooden cross that was later supplemented by a gravestone; it would be logical that the original cross would have been removed.]

If you know the location where any of these people are buried, please contact the compilers.

Historic Photos:

St. Nicholas Church in 1906

Hauer Family Memorial Chapel - 1906

New Market, Minnesota in 1906. This view was taken from the NW side of town. Main Street runs East-West, and has a variety of businesses, stores and homes. Farms are shown South of town, and the wooden St. Nicholas Church, rectory and a windmill are built on the left hilltop.

In this photo from about 1910, you will notice the new brick Church was constructed beside the older wooden church. Horses and wagons are parked on both sides of Main Street.

Acknowledgements:

This cemetery transcription was made possible because numerous people helped gather and edit information. Unfortunately we are not able to list every individual that helped with this publication. However, we would like to thank certain individuals who we asked to help us with significant research or other tasks.

-This project had its beginning with the German Interest Group's members (a.k.a. Germanic Genealogy Society) transcribing all the St. Nicholas gravestones on 12 May 1990. Approximately ten people, mostly without a New Market family connection, gathered a first draft of this transcription. Ron Zweber was the president of this group in 1990.

-Frank Roehl, who authored the 1959 "Centennial Observance" book for St. Nicholas was an enthusiastic supporter of this project and helped edit our early drafts. His counsel was sought for ideas on style and content.

-Ben Zweber and Ken Chlan were our contacts with the St. Nicholas Parish Council and Cemetery Board. Their encouragement and support as well as the parish council's endorsement was greatly appreciated. Ben also was very helpful in gathering information relating to people living in the New Market community.

-A number of people from the New Market area who helped with contacting people for information and/or editing were: Lorraine Dill Breuer, Elko, MN; Helen Mae Vaughan Casey, Prior Lake, MN; Irene Pinc Chlan, Faribault, MN; Genevieve Mahowald Deutsch, Elko, MN; Marcella Wagner Kaufenberg, New Market, MN; Claude Mahowald, New Prague, MN; Rosie Hauer Seurer, New Market, MN; Mildred Zweber Stanke, Northfield, MN; Lucille Radermacher Steinmetz, Lakeville, MN; Wilfred Vogel, New Market, MN; Bernard & Lorraine Roehl Zweber, St. Paul, MN; Clinton and Kathleen Kehrner Zweber, Lakeville, MN.

-People who have not lived in New Market, but who have family ties (listed in parenthesis) to New Market were: John & Mary Baltes, Inver Grove Heights, MN (Baltes/Breuer/Steimel); Jean Bravis, Lauderdale by the Sea, FL (Ring); Bernard Eischen, Fulton, NY (Eischen); Marge Elftmann, Palisade, MN (Eischens); Barb Wagner Factor, New Prague, MN (Wagner/Baltes/Tillges); Betty Gergen, Vermillion, MN (Schneider); Mary Jane Schmitt, Rochester, MN (Schmitt/Clemen[s]/Englund); Don Slinger (Karp/Mahowald/DeGross); Marion Suess Huff, St. Paul, MN (Pudil); Philip Markert, Nissawa, MN (Markert); Charlene Schmitz Scheffler, Waterville, MN (Rosen/Koppen/Schuller/Kremer et. al.); James Wermerskirchen, Shakopee, MN (Ring & Schmitz).

-We are grateful for the technical assistance provided by John Mahowald (son of Patrick) who helped us build the web pages to place a copy of this book on the Internet. And we would like to thank Daniel Mahowald, Warren Mosier and the staff from CORNERSTONE COPY CENTER, who published this book.

Finally, we would like to extend a special thanks to Betty Dols of Shakopee. She is a dedicated volunteer with the Scott County Historical Society and has been the driving force behind the initiative to have all the Scott County cemeteries transcribed. We appreciate her encouragement as well as her help with verifying records at the Scott County Courthouse.

Compilers' Notes:

We have taken great care to accurately record the information from the cemetery tombstones. Whenever possible, these dates have been matched back to the St. Nicholas parish records. We regret any errors that may be in this document. If you have questions about the information, or if you know of more accurate dates, please contact us. We'd welcome hearing from you.
